

Running Warehouse Return Shipping & Exchange Instructions

These instructions apply only to shipments received outside the contiguous United States.

It's easy to return your merchandise:

1. Fill out the return information below and check the box that tells us if you want to make an exchange or receive a refund.
2. Place the items you would like to return and a copy of this return form back into the original shipping box or soft pack. Securely tape your shipment closed.
3. To ship your return back to Running Warehouse: Drop the return shipment with your preferred carrier. Please keep a record of the tracking number.

You will be responsible for all shipping charges with your preferred carrier.

Returns must be sent back within 60 days from the original invoice date.

International customer please note: Any custom fees incurred by Running Warehouse will be deducted from your refund.

1. To receive a refund or exchange for the full value of your purchase, products must be returned in new, store-bought condition and in the original box or packaging within 60 days from the original invoice date.
2. Products returned in used or worn condition may be eligible to receive a store credit at the sole discretion of Running Warehouse.
3. Products returned beyond 60 days from the original invoice date may be eligible to receive a store credit at the sole discretion of Running Warehouse.

Please send all returns or exchanges to:

Running Warehouse, Attn: Returns Department, 181 Suburban Road, San Luis Obispo, CA 93401, USA

For additional return information, please check the Customer Service link on the top menu bar of the Running Warehouse website (www.runningwarehouse.com/CustService).
